

W. Hugh Peal Collection

left: Lamb wrote this poem about a collection of paintings owned by C. Aders.

right top: A photograph of the cottage at Enfield, Middlesex, where Lamb exiled himself from the bustle of London between 1826 and 1832.

right below: A photograph of Lamb's home in Edmon-ton, Middlesex, where he spent the last years of his life and is buried.