my most kind regards to your family & I am Sir
a few days back I received your letter, & certainly would have answered it sooner, if I had not had so much upon my hands & been obliged to leave Camb: for a few days. I should have had no objection to your proposals, providing there were no more books, than those I offered you, but having many more both ^{with the booksellers} in Camb: & other parts of the world, it would occasion me to conform to the same rule & therefore if agreeable to you

(as it is) if I judge right from your letter, we will ~~so~~ proceed exactly as usual, & will send you for sale - the following books* as soon as I shall receive an answer from you. I am yours
