

to find myself at sleep
- but must wait a wee.

You alarm me at what you say about the Venus
- some pages. On the strength of your last note I have commenced J. B. Beattie to carry out a few articles of his wh. will occupy a pictorial & literary page & be 25 fs. - What am I to do? - I had also devised

65M48

No. 10

Punch Office,
27, Bowdler Street,
Sep 28 1866

My dear Parry,

Many thanks for your prompt compliance with my request.

I have been very, very ill - my head! my head - but thank God I am all right again and must not over work myself as I have been doing - Some day I shall rejoice and arranged for a cube cor. of little black cub. each a conundrum! What's to be done?

Can't I see you? I am consternated

Yours faithfully
Mark Twain

My affectionate regards & thanks to Mrs. Hyman