

is the only alternative open.

Thanks for your sons polite note. & believe me

Yours faithfully

Charles Lewis.

o'Dowd
Have you seen Broad in the Blackburn - I have been trying to correct some of his notions w^{ch} Italy & the States?

67M31

March 23rd 1854[?]

Cas. Capponi
Florence

My dear Nass. Rose?

How was it that in the whole of Europe & America, nobody seemed to know that Mazzini was not merely an Italian conspirator, but that he came to England first - as the advizer & ally of the Chartists & was actually engaged in propagating in our country. The principles & practice of Continental Republicanism

In Hamilton Seymour it was who first warned the Gov. of the danger of Mazzini's movements. & through the medium of his counsel Sir James Graham opened the letters which created also the panic of that day.
- Now, is it not very likely, is it not certain that Staapell's knew all these facts a^d his friend? is it not much more likely that he Staapell interested himself in Mazzini's English Master Italian schemes? I am perfectly persuaded Taylor knew them.

The approval & support Mazzini has met with in England - have amazed also people here, because such a demonstration implies either great luxury in political horse-or an enormous amount of ignorance.
- And as nobody abroad is ignorant of Mazzini's character, no other at Florence between Aug 47 and his appl to Trieste in 1857

O'Dowd was in
"Blackwood" 1864