

Chelsea
Heraldry

LOCKER -LAMPSON, F.

4 pp. 30 Cadogan Gdens. S.W. 16 July 1892 - to J. Cordy Jeaffreson (1830-1901) the writer - 'It is very good of you to make those extracts for me, they are interesting, but how much more they wd be if I could used them as a clue to real information about the Lockers. I have some documents...which Gatty, of the Herald's College found for me...He found a Will for me of my Great, Great, Creant Grandfather, written in the scrivenors legal hand...'

1862

LAMPSON, E Lockwood - 4 Aug. Chelsea.
Secret Gen.
Coll. of Arms
Genealogy.

King and Constitution. (no t.p.). (1793?). 1 p. H.
1793 (ZOUCH, (Rev. T).
folio

News, as Lockers, may some by be glad to have.

Always truly yours

J. Durbin L.

30 Cadogan Gardens SW. -
16 July 1892 -

Dear Jepperson,

It is very good of you to make these extracts for me, they are interesting. but how much more they wd.
be if I could use them as a clue to further real information about the Lockers. I have some documents in which the name is spelt Lockyer and Lockier. Which Gatty, of the Herald College, found for me. I suppose there wd be no use in sending your contracts to him -

He found a will for me of my great, great, great Grand father, written in the scrivener's legal hand, but signed by "John Locke" - & it was the ^{vain} desire to know what sort of being his John Locke might have been, which has made me collect my recollections of my own, addressed to my children, which they