My Dear Sir:

I take the liberty of introducing to your acquaintance, the bearer of this, Mr E. O. Barker, of the publishing house of Mason Brothers, New York. He visits Rochester with a view to the introduction of my Series of Histories of the United States, into the schools of your city. Any information or facilities you may be pleased to give him, will be appreciated by him, and esteemed as a personal favor to

Your very sincere friend

Olson J. Loring
