The Ridge
Dover Plains, N.Y.
April 9. 1872.

Dear Mr. Dreyfus:

I have just received the inclosed from Mr. Coolidge. Will you, when

A shall fall in your way, make a selection from the illustrations by Matteson, engraved by Anderson. I think it might be well enough to select two. Coolidge has copies of the work there, besides copies of several little books, engraved by Anderson in his later days. His letter is a very cordial one

Yours very truly,
Benjamin J. Lossing

E. A. Dreyfus Esq.
