

London No. 4/44

Dear Sir

I would not write this moment for a day for Lancaster. Thursday the 21st of November will be open for you, if you still wish for the enjoyment of the business. — do you say "Yes" I will forward to you a form for Posting Bills and advertisement programme &c. — Remember to take watch of your feet. — I have been written to by the Mechanics' institution in your town to give them one or two nights, and also by the society of good fellows for terms - I have told them matters I would go - but nothing is fixed - as of course I would not hold any thing hanging over your agreement to militate against it, but I tell you, that you may know I am employed in Lancashire and if you do not make the price of the best seats too high, I have no doubt there will be a good attendance of the trading classes.

- I beg your answer ^{at} ~~in~~ ~~to~~ ~~be~~
"Grand Junction Hotel" Liverpool by return, if possible - In case you are afraid of the speculation, the one with you let me have your room for two guineas and I will drink myself. I am in haste
