To Mr. Lay.

FROGHOLE,
EDENBRIDGE,
KENT.

June 29 [1888]

Dear Mr. Lay,
I must write you again. I have the bill sale for which the

[Frederick W. Chesson
d. 1888.

W. F. Chesson's
friend of course

may particulars of Chesson (?)
affair from Arthur Jamett.

J.C.C. writes that he is going to visit Mr. Justice McE. also I have a letter from Edward Jamett

too. What I want to know now is what you advise as to the control of the money - if the R.L.F. gives any. What trustee should I suggest? Some one on your little committee?

They are not coming
at the meeting
Yours faithfully
W. F. Chesson

Yours faithfully?
Yours friend?
I would be for
to be able to answer
my ~~self~~ and questions
