

FROGHOLE,
EDENBRIDGE,
KENT.

July 21. 1901

Dear Sir. I hope you have not forgotten the matter in which you were proposing to write to me, that I am waiting to know is the charge you could make for giving me the use of your collection of Lamb's letters now in America. I do not wish to hurry

PROOF

you had so much money has to be expended in preparing work of this kind - among the needs of copyright holders - that we are anxious to find out as soon as possible how much we can afford to have the sum to be left ostensibly.

Believe me yours faithfully.
