

Cardinal Manning

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE, WESTMINSTER,
S.W.

Jan 7. 1876.

My dear Sir Baldwyn,

Let me thank you, however slowly, for the new Edition of Edward Denison's Letters.

It is a very real book.

It seems strange that a mind

so full of light & power

as I have & to have our poor should be quenched &

so many necessitous live on.
You say truly that Pauperism must be dealt with.
Not barbarism, & paganism.
As Play's estimate of our English pauperism is too true to be pleasant.
Many happy new

Yours very truly
G. H.

Believe me, always

Very truly yours

H. E. C. Lockhart.
