

Cardinal Manning

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE, WESTMINSTER,

S.W.

March 24. 1884

My dear Sir Baldwin

I have read with much satisfaction the Resolutions of the Bishops of Ireland. And I am most glad that you have boldly accepted the office of

Vice Chairman. I fully believe that the transfer of people in Ireland can be done so much to be done.

I am glad also to see that

S.W.

Mr Rennell has put his coat on again.

If you will let me I will keep the Papers for awhile.

Believe me, always

Very truly yours

Henry R. (and) Archer
