

London

The Editor of the Christmas Box.
Mr. Marshall.
1. Holborn Bars.

Miss A. Martineau was induced to offer her tale to the Editor of the "Christmas-box" by a friend who has already contributed to it, & under the expectation of receiving the same rate of payment. She supposed that £2 would thus be the value of it, but had much rather that the Editor should fix his own terms of the property of which he must be the best judge.

As Miss A. M. is on the point of leaving town, she will be obliged to the Editor to address

See at "St. Clement's Court, Milkstap, Cheapside", whence his commission
cation will be forwarded to her <sup>residence</sup>
at Norwich.

June 15th 1831