

Miss Masterson

Dear Mr. Prandi

I am impatient to thank you for your kind present. I find it so interesting that, after a very fatiguing day yesterday, I sat up an hour past midnight to read it, after my return from a party. - I had no idea of the extent of the treachery of Austrian proceedings, though I was aware that the cruelty could hardly be surpassed. It is a most melancholy story.

Surely you intend to let us have the remainder.

I am going to spend a month at the Cottage, beginning about the 9th of July. I shall be glad if we should have the pleasure of seeing you there, as we had last year.

Yours very truly

H. Martineau.
