

BOAR'S HILL,
OXFORD.

Nov 27. 1919.

Dear Mrs Daniel,

Mr Wilkinson very kindly offers to motor me over to see you some day, perhaps in the early New Year. It would be a great pleasure to me if I might do this.

Another poet has done a much better Fox poem than mine. It is a masterpiece, & it will come out in the Field's Christmas number. You must look out for it.

With our greetings to you & to your Daughter.

Yours very sincerely,
John Macarfield.
