

Friday

Dear Auntie
Dear
Dear
Dear
Dear
Dear

Masefield

My dear
Your letter was most welcome. I am so glad you had a happy birthday & thought of me & wondered how you were spending it. Oysters & champagne sounded lovely. Were Cyril wrote they "true". I am so sorry dear, you are not joining up to force to. Please write let me know what you decide. I do think it very important for Cyril to get some good n Over-charge Exercise after a hard week of work where I get settled with a work we shall be delighted to leave you tho' I am sorry to say I don't quite see how we can manage the mail. Would you like Cyril to bring you next week & you stay quietly here while he goes to school & fear it would be dead kill for you as I am not able to do much. I am writing about a work now but let me know exactly what you would like & I'll try & fit it in. We long to know what Cyril thinks of his uncle today. Much love to nashi for last post. I ever was m

Masefield

Dear Miss Wether, I have engaged a cook - So Cyril can bring you any time you like if you decide to have a breakfast as a resting place Your loving son

John Masefield