Dear Sir

On several occasions you have kindly called the attention of the public to some of my works in a very flattering manner and yesterday I saw your issue of the 27th of last month in which you speak of my picture entitled "Consolation" now on exhibition at the Academy of Design very favorably but without mentioning my name which I suppose was not intentional therefore your kindness towards me becomes on this occasion perfectly useless and should be very much obliged if this could be corrected you will excuse my troubling you with this detail, but I am certain you will understand the importance it has for me.

Begging you to accept my sincerely thanks - I remain your obedient servant

on one occasion you spoke of me as being a German - this is an error as I am a native of France
