

Dear Sir

I am much obliged to you for the number of Subscriptions, which you have been so kind as to procure me, but am ashamed to make you pay for your own, not onely on acc^t of this, but of your former favors to me at Bath, I desire you therefore to accept it, & pay y^e other nine quineas, if you please, for me to Mr. Robinson. You have not distinguished the Subscribers for the Large & the small paper whom I shall be obliged to distinguish in my list, so y^t I must trouble you again for a note of them, w^{ch} you may give also to Mr. Robinson, or by the favor of a line or two to myself. If I be not mistaken, I troubled you at first with a dozen receipts, four for the Large N^o. 8, 13, 14, 15, 16 & eight for the Small from 509 to 512 inclusive, if therefore you find two more remaining still upon your hands, you may return them to me at leisure, the late frost, wth some accidents, that I could not foresee, has interrupted the progress of our impression, but as I have long finished the whole work, as far as it depends on me, so we shall be able still, I hope, to publish it by Michaelmas term, be pleased to make my compliments, wth my wife's also, to your Lady & believe me on all occasions

Dear Sir

Camb. Apr. 27th. 1740

Your obliged humble Serv^t
Conyers Middleton

877
Books of — 52cm-94- 191 of vols
taken from Vol I

52

3801-2.80

Dear Sr

I am much obliged to you for the number of the subscriptions, which you have been so kind as to procure me, but am ashamed to make you pay for your own, not only on acct of this, but of your former favors to me at Bath, I desire you therefore to accept it, & pay ye other nine guineas, if you please, for me to Mr Robinson. You have not distinguished the subscribers for the large & the small paper whom I shall be obliged to distinguish in my list, so yt I must trouble you again for a note of them, wch you may give also to Mr Robinson, or by the favor of a line or two to myself. If I be not mistaken, I troubled you at first with a dozen receipts, four for the large, No. 813, 14, 15, 16, & eight for the small, from 505 to 512 inclusive, if therefore you find two more remaining still upon your hands, you may return them to me at leisure, the late frost, wth some accidents, that I could not foresee, has interrupted the progress of our impression, but as I have long finished the whole work, as far as it depends on me, so we shall be able still, I hope, to publish it by Michaelmas term, be pleased to make my compliments, wth my wife's also to your Lady & believe me on all occasions

Dear Sr

Your obliged humble servt

Camb. Apr. 27th. 1740

Conyers Middleton

This letter probably refers to his Life of Cicero, which appeared in 1741.