

To
Mr. Robert Bell
Buckton near Chesham
Hants

I have much pleasure in acknowledging the letter which you have favoured me, and assure you that I feel extremely flattered by the interest which I seem to have excited in you.

I will greatly be very much to know the honours of your acquaintance, if our chance should bring us near to each other, and I beg you to believe that I am very gratefully yours.

Yours truly,
Henry P.
