

22. Oct - 1877 -

THE CORNER HOUSE,
SHORTLANDS, KENT.

Dear Mr. Wilson

My an old acquaintance, who has never forgotten your kindness of long ago, & often wished to take up the dropped thread, do it now by means of Crozatier's Needle -
- I was so deeply interested throughout
- so sorry - & so glad. - May your enterprises soon come to a triumphant ending. -

Do you ever come in these regions? If you do - will you 1890

THE X PONTAIGNE

Come & see me? - I have been married nearly thirteen years. - & I have one adopted child - not born but "found" - when scarcely a year old - & now a little tidid of two
- the delight of my life.

It is about a quarter of a century since we shook hands! - if ever a chance arises, let us shake hands once more somewhere - for the older one grows the more one remembers all that was kind in one's youth - as you were to me. - And believe me - that "Dunbar" - (how penny to write again my old name!) is still

Yours very sincerely
Dunbar.
