

John Murray the Fourth

50, ALBEMARLE STREET,

W.

Sept 23. 95

My dear Lord Bishop.

I am much obliged by your kind letter just received, & have this day despatched 6 copies of your commentary, which I hope you will do me the favour of accepting.

We have in hand at present a sufficient stock to last for some time, but if at any time you should find passages which require correction or alteration, I should be very much obliged if you would tell me of them, as I would have the necessary changes made in the stereotype plates, so as to be in readiness for a reprint when called for.

Believe me, My Lord

Yours faithfully

To the Lord Bishop of Durham John Murray
