

Dear Sir

I have hoped in vain to get a day
here - or even to get down in time to call on you and on others who have been so obliging as to call on me - Can you waive this ceremony and excuse so very short an invitation as for Thursday at half past Six -

You will meet Mr Brown and I had hoped to have seen our friend Mr Knipe of whom absence I was ignorant till Sunday.

Best I am Dear Sir

Yours very faithfully
