

120 LAKE SHORE DRIVE

My dear North:
I write to you only
to tell you how much I enjoyed until a very late hour last evening the charming
'Footprints of St. Char: Lamb' - After I
had my friends

Philip: you remember, excite that Saints' meeting - verb. exp.

Don't. I pray: forget my life of and "Kingsley's" when it first comes to your hands. I expect an all night over it.

at least truly yours

Geo. W. Johnson
standing over my

walk out of the house,
after a Sunday
afternoon at home,
I set to renewing
my acquaintance
with the magazine articles, and I need not say the second acquaintance
was not a sufferer

The Bibliography was extensive first as ^{what} complete and successful bibliography ought to be. You know what I may say of his case head; that Phillip must have found our kind friend in America - St. Ephraim; who must have missed for all Phillip's share for him on earth.
