

Mr. R. S. Blackmore sends his best thanks to the President & Council of the Publisher's Association for the honor of their invitation, & is sorry to say that his present state of health allows him no hope of such enjoyments.

To the Secretary of the Publisher's Congress. —

Beddington. May 30th 1899. —

