My dear Sir,

As I am about
to leave home for some months, I shall not be able to undertake ~~take~~ the articles of which you speak — much to my regret.

I return the notice
with some additions and substitutions. Probably a more extended notice

would now be thought not inappropriate. I enclose a published circular, containing information.

Believe me

Cordially Yours

F. Parkman
