

To Leonard Rees

July
19th: 1920

Dear Sir,

Seeing the Divorce Law Reform Union asked you to help them, that was your reason for coming to me, the case is altered.

As I mentioned at the time it was a subject I felt willing to tackle.

May some good result. Shutt does not answer my letters - his daughter's divorce may have made him feel a little snappy, though it might have increased his sympathy with other sufferers. Lord Goff, who is always courteous, informs me that while he cannot receive the proposed deputation, he will pay attention to the petition. But I fear the game is up: there is no time & the opposition are unscrupulous & have the weight of the church behind them.

Sincerely yours,

Edw. Shilleto