

Indian Hill Farm, near
Newburyport, Oct. 3, 1884.

Dear Mrs. Currier,

after looking at all of the books I could find in the Boston Public Library bearing on "Newbury," I think that the Mayor is the proper person to write to. I will submit the draft of a letter to you in a day or two.

My paper is mouldy - so you will have to order some.

Tell Mrs. Currier that I was led by her praises to see the "Nepheu", and that I enjoyed it hugely. "You know!"

Faithfully Yours,

Wm. Parker Peave

(Hon. J. J. Currier.
