Dear Lilley,

It will afford both Lady Moompils & myself great satisfaction if, by any arrangement in which we have a voice, you can be benefited.
By all means, make the proposed use of B. L. portrait, and after our return, next Tuesday, she will be ready to go to you for the completion of the work.

Lady Bloomfield & myself are much concerned to find you still unaccommodated but hope you will soon be in your wonted health.
H. L. being about to leave here gave me the commission to answer your obliging Note.
& I remain yours faithfully
Bloomfield
