

Indian Hill Farm, near Newbury Port, Nov. 9, '84.

My Dear Mr. James,

I did understand that at first you wanted the cut of Indian Hill this week, but thought you deferred it until I could hunt up the facts for an article on the farm's premises.

Yours of the 8th reached me this morning, and I have hastily written a sketch of the place and added a few paragraphs about myself from another pen. If too long, or undeservedly complimentary, run your pen through what will be better omitted.

Faithfully Yours

Ben: Arley Perce
