My dear Fields

Will you come & take a family dinner with me tomorrow (Sunday) at half past six (precisely) - ?

When I saw you last I was in daily expectation of my wife & one of my children returning from Geneva - they have now come & we shall be very glad to see you, if you can come. I propose to send a book to Mr. Longfellow & one to Mr. Hunt Home.

Very truly yours
B. W. Procter
