Monsieur

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your poem - being a translation of some verses of mine.

It appears to me to be very happily executed - rendering the thoughts of the original faithfully with brevity.

I do not return your poem, because I suppose that you have ^{kept} a copy of it. If ^{let me know} not, I will forward it to you at once.

My absence from London will excuse me to you, for not sending you an earlier answer to your letter. Please the honor to remain, Monsieur.
