

PADDOCK'S END,
HAYWARDS HEATH,
SUSSEX.

Feb. 21st 1927

Dear Mr Rees

I must tell you how immensely I enjoyed your dinner on Friday. Not only was it a den of lions at whom I could stare in dumb admiration but there is evidently a keeper in the basement of the Saville who knows how to look after the animals at feeding time.
Some man!

So many thanks for letting me come
Yours sincerely
Ernest Raymond.
