

Dear when

BEAVOR LODGE,
HAMMERSMITH.

Dear Mr. (last name) -

Alas No! The crown is cast in metal and is now very elaborately chased,
the candlestick is in wax still. You making a real work of it not commenced which I hope will be worthy of the money. The chasing (properly done) is a very long affair but it is worth the time. I feel that there is so much good metal and that I want this to be perfect.

Yours ever

W. B. Dickson

July 23 (1897)

To Mrs. W. E. Gladstone

BRIDGE ST. N. Y.

13783 (c)

68m37