MASTER'S HOUSE,
TEMPLE. E. C.

Sunday July 3.
[1890's].

Dear Mr. Blakener.

I owe you a thousand apologies - I have been over-worked - out of town at Bristol, for a chapter meeting, and for the last two days quite unwell - unfit for my duty & I must ask you kindly to excuse me from accepting
your friendly invitation -
I cannot add to me

MASTERS' HOUSE,

present engagements.
for in this month
of June, what with the innumerable calls on my time, I have scarcely leisure even to write a sermon - Beside which I am
no speaker - and utterly unfit for
these school. functions.
So please forgive
me yours truly
Alfred Angus.
