

April 16, 1811.

Many, many thanks! Indeed, if you did but know what pleasure

I feel in thinking that I am of any service (however small it may be) to You & Yours on this occasion,

You would say, & say very truly,

that I have no merit in it, at all. But whatever I am in other respects, believe me that

I am

Always Yours.

C. is going on, like the King, favourably. Sam<sup>l</sup> Rogers
