

My dear Knauth
I read you on this, perhaps one by Mr. Taylor whom I know not if you know
but who has seen some things of yours here
It refers to a job of decoration work, involving original design of some playful sort I believe.
I really don't know whether it would suit
you or be compatible

Write you doing that I desire for me which I shall be doing you with soon. But the idea
will do for a seaside
walk which I hope
may profit you in other ways. We can talk about it when I see you.

I also thought of
your acquaintance Crome, if it should not suit you.
But do you know his line?

Your
D. Peffer,
