16th Nov. 74

My dear Sir

My good friend Mr Barrow of Bristol encourages me to hope that you may be induced to favour, me with your company at dinner on Thursday next, the 19th -at 7, and to join in the quiet little debate which with some other friends I am endeavouring to make an custom always, on the -evening, after-noon, on matters connected with proposed changes in the University. I am, my dear Sir

Faithfully yours
The Rev. C. H. O. Daniels V Rector.
