My dear Sir Lucas. If I get at a long haul I will remember your wishes. I hope the evening stars will shine in a few twilight But the Moon in our lines where it lingers like most other things and I can be sure of my subjects. However I will do my best and I hope there may be big birds. Judging of the present weather there will be no lack of water. The boys are in Ormeau all night.

Yours
GR
