Saturday

Dear Ernest:

I am simply loaded up with work & engagements - I have an engagement in New York on Wednesday but instead of remaining over as I hoped, I must hurry right back here - So it cannot be just now: just as soon as I get over this rush, we will come - But just now, I haven't a single evening open for 2 weeks to come; even my Sundays are being eaten into - Life is pretty full - But have patience with me; I'll come -

Always sincerely

Ed

Friday

Dear Ernest:

All right: will be on hand for the celebration - Just now it looks a bit blue for Mrs Boks is pretty sick & in bed & I am confined with a nasty cough: the first in years - But Wednesday next is sometime off, and the Boks generally come back quickly from their little ills and ails -

Always sincerely

Ed
