My Compliments to Mr. Hylton, whose list of Grievances I have been shewing to Mr. Pixell — If Aaron persists in taking Floyd's House, I could wish he might be acquainted that He will never obtain a License for selling Ale; nor ever be permitted to encroach an Inch upon the Waste — My Cages are come, & a sort of Instrument — Case from Giles's — Let not Mr. Hylton forget to obviate. u. W x S x [hematone] any Claim y<sup>r</sup> Aaron may lay to y<sup>r</sup>. 20.

237 SHENSTONE (W.). A.L.S., 1 page, oblong 8vo, to J. S. Hylton :
“ The chief transactions since he left me have been yt. I wrot to Dodsley [Shenstone's publisher] on Wednesd: night, & from his two last sheets propos'd for him to make up one, with which he might proceed, in case of absolute necessity,” etc. 26 Novem., 1757. Together with the engraved title-page of Donaldson's Edinburgh edition of Shenstone's works.
