

interfere with the measure.

Mr. Perry will witness for your Honour this Point of Late; active in my Behalf than waits upon your Lordship he is perfectly well acquainted with the Matter. I should be at Inville could be imputed of Delicacy. I am not convinced in the Delay of our Account Lordship will hardly con-

Mr. Sherston
to Lord Stamford

[Charles Kemble
?]

May spare me a bit
C.K.

FRAGMENT OF A SHENSTONE LETTER.

terfere with the pleasure Mr Perry will witness for bour'd this point of late; active in my behalf then waits upon your Lordship
he is perfectly well acquaint

I should b at Enville could be imput of Delicacy. I am not con in the Delay of our Acco

Lordship will hardly com (To Lord Stamford)

Note. At the beginning of 1763 Shenstone was on a visit to Lord Stamford, when he came down with the illness which terminated in his death. Lord Stamford (Henry Grey), the 3rd Earl, was one of the individuals concerned with procuring a pension for Shenstone.

This fragment was found in a collection of letters purchased from Last of Bromley, Kent, the Wade Browne collection.