

July 15
1914

My dear Lord Moulton
I was so sorry
to have to leave early last night: settlement estate duties compelled it.

You will be amused
by the algebraic amendment enclosed: some day we shall ascertain our income tax on a "graph" & substitute curves for words. Yrs ever truly John Simon