

Delgado's Letters are by Blanca White of Holland House - they are very valuable for their perfect authenticity - as well as for the ability with which they are written - they are upon the State of Spain & the Catholic religion previous to the present Revolution I had not heard of Peel's failure. but to what purpose is his failure? as there is never wanting a succession of bad Ministers - after Pitt Lincoln's failure of bad Ministers - then Peel comes Peel will do more or else, as I believe and of Peel will do more or else, as I believe and as unfriendly to improvement - These things being so - I turn my attention to Germany in which I am arguing every day - better nations, and losing prejudices and prejudices - but I retain all my prejudices in favour of my hosts of Hanish and in those parts myself regarding the Spaniards I am again opposite to you. By Percy Smith.

In seeing my hand writing again so soon - you will say that you attach upon me for my indisposition to Letter Writing has been more successful than you wished it to be - but I cannot help saying a Word about Wars. For Gods sake do not drag me into another War I am overdone, and worn out with Campaigning, and defending Europe, and protecting Marston - I cannot think a little of myself - I am sorry for the Spaniards I am sorry for the Jews - I deplore the State of the Jews - the people of the Sandwich Islands are groaning under the most detestable Tyranny Bagdad is oppressed I do not like the present State of the
