My Dear Dr. Rossiter Johnson:

Here are the synopses of the two books. I hope they will be what you want. But if you suggest any alterations I shall be glad to make them. They are, each, a trifle over 3500 words. I found less unwise.

Thanking you very much for giving me the opportunity to do the work, and the chance of appearing in the Series,
Most cordially yours
Harriet Prescott Spofford.
