

My dear Sir William

I have the pleasure of enclosing a letter which I have just received from Lord Archibald Hamilton, hoping that by this communication I take the most effectual is far more likely to forward your own views.

Believe me ever, my dear Sir W.
Yours most truly
Augustus Stewart