

Lord Falkland presents his Compliments, to Mr. Talbot - He is not aware of any vacancy at present in the Council of Fort St. John's; but will however acquaint Lord Lovington with the applications which have been made in favour of Mr. Talbot, in order that he may be recommended in the usual manner in the event of a vacancy, should Lord Lovington think such a recommendation advisable.

Downing Street 11 April 1807.
