PERCY SPALDING,

ANDREW CHATTO,

C. H. C. PRENTICE,

O. P. M. TOZER.

my dear P. W. W.

I am sorry about the Lawrence;
but Mr Spalding took it into his head to read this himself, and was so mystified by it that he couldn't bring himself even to contemplate publication.

How would you like to lunch
with me next week at the new little restaurant discovered by A. Bennett opposite the Ambassadors' Theatre? Monday or Tuesday do? if so, I wish you would call for me here and we could walk up there together. It is quite nice, and quiet.

I've had a note from Methuens
asking for a paragraph. I'll send this.

Yours
A. W.
