

Telegraphic Address
'Bookstore, London'
Telephone Number
1624 Gerrard

97 & 99, St. Martin's Lane,

London, W.C 2, April 29th 1920

PERCY SPALDING.
ANDREW CHATTO.
C. H. C. PRENTICE.
C. F. M. TOZER.

my dear Pinkie

You take my breath away.

I gazed before you. This is like a dream. I have written one short story (not suitable for Chic. Trib), & hope to finish another on Sunday. I have ideas for several more, & will work on them quickly. But not too quickly.

Trust me. I'm truly grateful to you, by the way!

I'm delighted to see you are back, & look eagerly forward to our meeting. We shall certainly meet at lunch next Thursday, when you are with AB., & I would ask you to lunch on another day only I've got lunches fixed or half fixed for Monday & Tuesday & in any case you may then be busy. If you are free on Weds, we might perhaps? or just as you like. I mean, you must have loads to see to. But just let me know.

Yours ever
P.S.