

Sergents' Inn, 16 May, 1847

My dear Sir,

I am directed by the Society of Sergents' Inn to convey to you their cordial thanks for the very handsome and welcome present you have made & them in the Portrait of Sir John Russell, which is now with the frame maker to receive the few subordinate decorations which its great interest, and, with which, it will surely win an honorable place among the portraits of distinguished names.

John Russell

Believe me to remain,
My dear Sir,

Yours ever truly

J. H. Telford

J. B. Ray Esq
de ce ce