Madame Colmache

care of H. Colburn Esq.

Great Marlborough St.

London.

Dear. Tuesday night.

My dear Mrs Colmache

I was at Brighton when you were so kind as to call: and only hurried to town for a day when I had a number of party commissioners and a fit of unwellness to go through. I wish I could have stopped another day in order to have had the pleasure of seeing you - but my delays have been such that I couldn't remain longer, and leave behind me at this minute I don't know how much business & how many devoirs.

That last paper about the Spectre of Talleyrand was exceedingly interesting.!

Hope you have some more chronicles of Valencay.

Ever faithfully yrs dear Mr. Colman

To Mr. Thackeray
